

Duties and Responsibilities:

Precisely and accurately perform a variety of routine and specialized histology techniques in concurrence with established laboratory policies and procedures.

Responsible for all technical procedures utilized in the preparation of microscopic slides including tissue processing, paraffin block sectioning, H&E, PAS, GMS, and FM staining.

Responsible for the production of high-quality slides from frozen or fixed tissues. This will include grossing, trimming, embedding, processing, sectioning using a microtome/cryostat, staining with H&E, special stains and immunohistochemistry.

Performs equipment maintenance, reagent recycling/reclamation and efficient use of the pathology laboratory information system and specimen tracking system.

Performs daily and weekly QC.

Qualifications:

- Associates Degree or Bachelor's Degree or completion of required relevant course work;
- Completion of student clinical rotations or 1 year of on-the-job histology experience
- As part of CAP requirements, copy of college transcript required upon hire.
- HT(ASCP) or HTL (ASCP), or within one year of date of employment
- Certified as a histotechnologist or equivalent. License if required
- Other combinations of formal education, training and experience may be considered.

Apply Now

Job Type: Full-time or Part-Time

Work Location: In person